TIMELY TOPICS

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH POLITICS?

Only a few weeks ago the daily papers were simply full of politics.
We had politics for breakfast, politics for dinner and politics again for supper, until politics became as nauseous as the proverbial prunes, prunes, prunes. But lately there has been a silence; the cabinet has been formed, and the same cabinet has no doubt since been sizing up the situation, and we shall presently have a good measure of politics again served up to us. It is strange how silent Provincial politics have been of late, so silent that some have felt the suspicion that it presaged a storm. The recent bye-elections in Southern Alberta have gone against the government, and the few opinions that have been expressed prophesy the coming doom of the Sifton government.
Well, politicians have shown themselves capable of making mistakes before-to-day, and a mistake in judgment, or an unwise stand, or even an unpopular stand in regard to an important question is resented usually by the people as soon as they get an opportunity to express their opinion at the polls.
Premier Sifton took a very bold stand as soon as he was put into office. It is thought by many that he took too bold and too sudden a stand against the Rutherford government for a man who was not even a member of parliament. The fact remains that the tide is turning upon him, and he will have to be a strong man indeed to successfully resist it.

RAILWAY COMPANIES SHOULD ACT

LIKE WHITE MEN

The other day Chairman Mabee of the Dominion Railway Commission phoned to the country that he understood his work and was determined to do it well.

"I cannot understand," said he,
"why railway companies do not act like white men. If I want to take any of your property I go to you and talk it over before I begin business, but a railway simply instructs its engineers to go ahead and draw plans, without consulting the person or company whose property it proposes to take.
When a man becomes a railway man he seems to become a law to himself, but so far as I am concerned, I intend that the railways shall obey the law like any private citizen or individual."

Chairman Mabee gives expression to just the sentiment of the majority of his countrymen. There is no reason whatever why railways should ride roughshod over everybody and everything, regardless of law and order. They should be made to observe laws as well as other men, and not go stalking through any man's land, and ignore existing railroads and towns as though they were not.

Railroads in their place serve a felt need, but it is possible for them to be very unjust, both in regard to location and also in regard to their charges for freight and express.

Railroads have had their day, and if they desire to continue their freedom as companies they must serve the country and the people and not exist solely for the purpose of bleeding their patrons in order to build up large corporations and make millionaires. We do not need to take the role of the prophet when we say that unless they do show a little more consideration in the years to come they will kill the goose that lays the golden egg. This is a matter that concerns the people and all the people. Let the railroads take heed.

SELF CONTROL

What a wonderful and blessed thing is self-control. One man on a very cold day, with chilled toes and fingers, curses and blas-phemes and fills the air with sulphurous emissions, so much that you wonder if indeed he has escaped from a warmer region and is chafing at the difference in temperature and was anxious to get back to his warm abode again.
He slaps and dashes and splutters and splashes, and even the hired man hides his head for very shame.
The good wife and children take it, however, as a usual thing, for they have seen similar exhibitions even in the height of summer.
(What shall we say to him? Oh, wicked man that thou art? Well, not exactly; this may not be such a display of wickedness as lack of self-control. Here is another fellow, he feels the cold and feels just as much "out of sorts" with the weather and the topsy turvy state of the weather office as the other man, but what does he do?
Why he simply has decided not to make a fool of himself. He takes it for granted also that other people feel the cold as much as himself, so he will just get a hustle on himself and not attempt to make other people suffer because his grain is yet in the shock, and some of it standing ready to cut next year. He has control of his temper, he has himself well in hand, and would scorn to show himself so weak as to create a furor and set everybody around talking of him. In short, he is a man, and bears life's burdens, its disappointments, like the man that he is.

Yes, self-control is a good thing in man or woman, in boy or girl.
The lack of it unmans one and makes him a thing to be despised.
We admire the man that keeps hold on himself. "Better is he that controlleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."

THE MOUNTED POLICE

We occasionally hear rumors that the Canadian Mounted Police force will soon drop out of existence. While there is such a need of that force which has done such noble self-sacrificing work in the past, we hope it will not be allowed to pass out of existence. With such a sparsely settled territory as Western Canada still has, and with such licensing laws that now obtain, the presence of the Mounted Police is an absolute necessity, and is becoming increasingly so.

SLOW JUSTICE

It is more than thirteen months ago since the explosion and fire which wrecked the Times building of San Francisco and killed 21 persons, yet the trial of the supposed culprits has not yet begun.
What is the matter with the Judiciary system that has made this long delay possible? Why is it that the killing of 21 persons, and all the sadness and sorrow which that killing has entailed, has not

FARMER'S
STORE

L. R. Caspell

yet been redressed? In any other civilized country such an outrage upon society as was that explosion would have been speedily followed by the conviction and punishment of the guilty parties, and there would not have been anything like the difficulty the United States has experienced in finding a jury qualified to sit upon the case. Crime will continue to increase while the law and justice follows it with such laggard steps.

FAVORITE OF THE WEST

No home in this Western country can well afford to be without "The Family Herald and Weekly Star," of Montreal. It is particularly useful in Western homes.
The information it gives to the new settlers, and old settlers as well, is worth hundreds of dollars a year. It is simply marvellous the amount of good instructive matter that paper contains each week. It well deserves its success.
One dollar cannot be better invested in Western homes than by ordering that great paper. A beautiful premium picture entitled "Home Again" is also included, and it is well worth the dollar alone.

Mr. Geo. McVicar.

The evening sermon subject at the Presbyterian Hall next Sunday will be "Justification."

Mr. Allan of Naptown was a Cayley visitor on Saturday, at the home of his brother William.

L. T. wears a sad face since our "Hello-Girl" left. He is fixing up house. What does it mean?

McMeekin & Scragg are installing gasolene lamps in the hotel and some of the business places in the village.

Principal McMeekin of Staveley (of the firm of McMeekin & Scragg of Cayley) was here for a day or two last week.

Messrs. Geo. Walker and Ralph Chaffee are in from Reid Hill.
They report the weather conditions very cold.

We are all waiting for that promised chinqu. It can't come too quickly now for those waiting to finish threshing.

The Hicklin Bros. have moved into town. Bill says baching is all right these cold days if Jack gets up and starts the fire.

Zero weather in Cayley these days. It has given the Easterners a desire to return home. Many returned to Ontario this week.

We understood the coal strike was settled a week ago; but it's dying hard, and isn't dead yet. Its demise is hourly expected.

The Liquor License Commissioners will hold a meeting in Calgary the 22nd December, when W. A. Bourdon's application will be considered.

sgiving services in the Methodist church here next Sunday and the supper and entertainment on the following Thursday evening.

Members of the Presbyterian Bible Class, and all interested in its full organization, are requested to be at the Presbyterian Hall on Wednesday, 15th inst., at 7.30 p.m.

S. L. Taube, of the Taube Optical Co., Calgary, will be at the Cayley Drug Store on Friday, November 24th. If you have eye trouble of any kind be sure to

The train leaving here for the north at 10.00 in the morning has been changed to 9.50, and the evening train at 7.00 to 7.50.
The trains going south have not been changed.

Rev. J. M. Beaton returned on Saturday from attending the S.
S. Convention at Edmonton and Miss Caspell returned on Monday, she having spent Sunday with friends in Calgary.

A report of the Sunday School Convention held in Edmonton last week will be given in the Presbyterian Hall next Sunday morning by the delegates, Misses Duncan and Caspell.

Thousands of acres of grain is still standing in stacks in the Calgary coal dealers predict a serious coal famine during this winter. 'Specs they have a surplus of eastern coal they want to dump off their hands before coal comes in from the strike districts in the near future.

A result of the late threshing and scarcity of labor is that practically no fall plowing has been done. This to some extent affects the acreage under crop next year.
Sowing on the stubble has proven successful in this country, and no doubt a good deal of next year's crop will be seeded that way, while a considerable proportion of the laud will go under summer fallow.

Very soon Christmas will be here. Why not see to it in good time in choosing your Christmas greetings? Too often this is left until the last minute, and you are disappointed in not getting the quality you might have had had you made your selection early.

Religious Education in Schools

It is being realized by many thoughtful people that the influence of religious education upon our public school children, which has a decided effect upon them in their more mature years, needs to be thorough and genuine. It makes all the difference in the world where religious teaching is taught in a school and where it is not. At the recent teachers' convention held at Macleod, a very thoughtful and inspiring address was given by Supt. McCaig of Edmonton on this important subject.

In earliest times, he said, English education was largely on religious and dogmatic subjects and nearly all in the hands of monastic orders. Gradually this state of things was changed till the opposite extreme was reached. Now it is becoming realized that symetrical development of the child demands that he be trained in body, mind and soul. Measures were mentioned by which the great truths and precepts of religion may be impressed upon the minds of pupils. The Rev. Mr. Hall followed the address by some remarks on steps now being taken to bring this important matter before the Provincial Government.

Consolidation of Public Schools

At the recent teachers' convention held at Macleod in instructive paper was read by Principal Mc-Meekin of Staveley on the "Consolidation of Rural Schools." He showed the advantages which have been found to attend the plan of locating a school centrally and carrying the children to it by means of teams hired for the purpose and driven by responsible men. This system has been widely in use for some years in the eastern provinces and the U.
S. and gives better results than the single district schools in former use.

The advantages are: The safety, comfort and health of the children are better; they are freed from the danger of hearing obscene language, the driver keeping order on the way and the teacher at school; the children do better in their studies in larger classes where there is more competition; their attendance is much better.

they run no risk from damp feet or clothing, and they enjoy school much more when they have more playmates of their own age. The other advantages are the lessened cost of buildings, heating and upkeep, fewer teachers needed, hence better salaries and hence again better teachers who would be more willing to remain.

The mail of a whole township may be brought to school and distributed daily by the school teams and the same teams may bring people to the school evenings and holidays for social life.

Hello, Reid Hill, glad to see you are alive and happy as a lark
